at the

Baha'í Center of Raleigh
212 Linden Ave/Raleigh

Featured speaker on Sunday, September 21st, 10 a.m.

will be

Colby Gottert – the documentary filmmaker and fellow Baha'í who made “Life Out of Balance: Climate Change in the Developing World”, which premiered at the UN Climate Change Conference in Bali, Indonesia on December 10th, 2007.

In this film, Mr. Gottert investigates the impacts of climate change in Peru, Indonesia, and the Republic of Niger by documenting the stories of three individuals whose lives are directly impacted by climate change.

“Will enough rain fall for crops to grow? What will happen to heavily populated low-lying areas when glaciers melt? Can island peoples keep their way of life if coral reefs no longer attract enough fish for them to eat? These are some of the questions being asked in developing countries already suffering the consequences of climate change...”
