

THE MARRIAGE SUPPORT TEAM

For the Triangle Cluster

A resource serving Spiritual Assemblies, individuals preparing for marriage, married couples seeking assistance in strengthening their marriage and communities. It will foster vibrant and spiritually-based marriages and families.

- Objectives of the MST
1. To serve Spiritual Assemblies in fulfilling their functions regarding marriage and family life.
 2. To provide periodic workshops, deepening programs and other educational opportunities addressing issues related to marriage and family life.
 3. To provide a sensitive and thought-provoking process with which to engage couples seeking assistance in the decision to marry or those preparing for marriage, including face-to-face meetings and access to published resources.
 4. To assist married couples experiencing marital difficulties.
 5. To provide a healing environment and an atmosphere of trust in which individuals can share openly and listen respectfully. Members of the MST must at all times regard the privacy and confidence of the friends as a sacred Trust.
